Thanks Rob I appreciate that. I am on the road at the moment but perhaps I just speak to Emin first. Seems we have some time and if it's what you say I love it especially later in the summer. Could we do a call first thing next week when I am back?

Best,

Good morning

Emin just called and asked me to contact you with something very interesting.

The Crown prosecutor of Russia met with his father Aras this morning and in their meeting offered to provide the Trump campaign with some official documents and information that would incriminate Hillary and her dealings with Russia and would be very useful to your father. This is obviously very high level and sensitive information but is part of Russia and its government's support for Mr. Trump - helped along by Aras and Emin.

What do you think is the best way to handle this information and would you be able to speak to Emin about it directly?

I can also send this info to your father via Rhona, but it is ultra sensitive so wanted to send to you first.

TRUMP JR. ACQUAINTANCE ROB GOLDSTONE USED FACEBOOK TO PLACE HIMSELF AT SCENE OF TRUMP TOWER MEETING WITH RUSSIAN LAWYER

BY GRAHAM LANKTREE ON 7/11/17 AT 6:05 AM

U.S. DONALD TRUMP JR. ROB GOLDSTONE RUSSIA INVESTIGATION

Updated | British music publicist Rob Goldstone used Facebook to digitally "check in" at Trump Tower on the day of a meeting he brokered between Donald Trump Jr. and a Kremlin-connected lawyer. Goldstone had promised the Russian government would help the Trump campaign with damaging information about rival candidate Hillary Clinton.

In an email Goldstone sent to Trump Jr. before the meeting he described the information about Clinton was part of a Russian government plan to help U.S. President Donald Trump's election bid, according to three sources familiar with the email who spoke to The New York Times Monday. Each described the email's contents.

The meeting was on June 9, 2016—two weeks after U.S. President Donald Trump won the Republican nomination to run for president. Goldstone's Facebook feed shows that at 3:57 pm he checked in to Trump Tower, notifying his Facebook friends of his location. Another post earlier that day places him in New York. Ten days earlier Goldstone was in Moscow at the end of a nine day trip to Russia.

Keep Up With This Story And More By Subscribing Now

In a statement Sunday Trump Jr. did not name Goldstone but said that an "acquaintance" set up the meeting with promises of "information helpful" to his father's campaign. Trump Jr. said he did not know who he was meeting with but ended up speaking with Kremlin-connected Russian lawyer Natalia Veselnitskaya who pressed him to help reverse a set of U.S. sanctions against Russia.

Music publicist Rob Goldstone places himself at Trump Tower Jun 9, 2016, during meeting between Donald Trump Jr. and a Kremlin-connected lawyer.

ROB GOLDSTONE/FACEBOOK

The meeting was also attended by President Trump's son-in-law Jared Kushner and Trump campaign chairman Paul Manafort.

Veselnitskaya has a past of lobbying for Russian state interests and working on behalf of wealthy Russians connected to the state.

Goldstone identified himself as the "acquaintance" who brokered the meeting to The Washington Post last Sunday. He placed himself in the meeting room at Trump Tower.

But questions remain about how Goldstone—a music publicist who has worked for Michael Jackson, Cyndi Lauper, U2, and Richard Branson—knows Donald Trump Jr. and how he came to be at the center of the American government's investigation into Russia's efforts to sway the election in favor of Trump.

Read more: Donald Trump Jr. met Russian lawyer Natalia Veselnitskaya at Trump Tower—So Who is She?

In his statement about the meeting with Veselnitskaya, Trump Jr. said he knew Goldstone "from the 2013 Miss Universe pageant" in Moscow, which was then owned by his father, President Donald Trump.

Goldstone is connected to the pageant and represents Russian pop singer and real estate magnate Emin Agalarov, who hobnobbed with Donald Trump at the 2013 Moscow Miss Universe event with his father Aras Agalarov—a Russian luxury real estate developer and businessman estimated to be worth $1.9 billion.

Goldstone said in a statement to NBC News late Monday that he was asked by Emin Agalarov "to help facilitate" the meeting.

Agalarov's father was given the Order of Honor of the Russian Federation the same year by President Vladimir Putin and claims he and Trump planned to build a Trump Tower in Russia. Agalarov's family is close to Putin and his father Aras Agalarov set up a meeting between Donald Trump and Putin's former economy minister, Herman Gref, now CEO of Russia's state-controlled Sberbank PJSC while Trump was in Moscow.

Goldstone was also at the pageant and is seen in Russian news footage beside Emin Agalarov and Trump. Trump also appeared in Agalarov's 2013 music video for his song "In Another Life" which Goldstone says was his idea.

Goldstone is a jet-setting publicist and frequently flies between New York City, London, and Moscow, and places further afield like Azerbaijan, Thailand, and Brazil. He founded his publicity company with a partner in 1998. He was back in Russia again near the end of July 2016 to promote a performance by Emin Agalarov in front of St. Petersburg's Hermitage Palace for a PBS special.

"Emin, I can't believe you're turning 35. You're getting older all the time. But you're a winner, you're a champ, you're great at real estate, and boy can you entertain," Trump said in a video Birthday message to Agalarov in 2014 after the two met in Russia. Goldstone posted this video to his Facebook page on November 11 after Trump won the 2016 U.S. election November 9 with a reply message from Agalarov to Trump.

"Congratulations, you did it. I never doubted you for one second. You're an absolute winner, you proved everybody wrong," Agalarov says in the video.

Music publicist Rob Goldstone posted a photo of himself on Instagram wearing a "Russia" shirt the day after the November 8 U.S. election.

ROB GOLDSTONE/INSTAGRAM

After learning that Trump won, Goldstone posted an undated photo of himself eating with Trump and Agalarov with the caption "The A Team - headed to the White House!"

On his Instagram feed the day after the election Goldstone also posted a photo of himself wearing a t-shirt that simply says "Russia."

Hey Don

While i was in Moscow last week I met with the head of marketing for Russia's largest social media network VK (Facebook) about Emin projects and the subject of Russian American voters in USA came up.

There are over 2.7 million registered Russian speaking voters in the USA and most have VK social media accounts!

The head of marketing - who is a personal friend - is keen to set up a Trump Campaign VOTE page on VK (similar to the mock up below) targeted at Russian and CIS voters in the USA.

I will bring a print out of this below tomorrow - but let me know if I should send to someone in your social media department to have them OK the page etc. As you know, most Russians and Russian Americans are Trump supporters - so this type of marketing to them will surely secure their votes in places like NYC, NJ, California, VA, Michigan and Illinois - where most of their populations reside.

Best

Good Morning

Dan, I am following up on an email a while back of something I had mentioned to Don and Paul Manafort during a meeting recently.

There are believed to be around 2 million Russian American voters living in the USA - and more than 1.6 million of these use the Russian "Facebook" site V Kontakte "VK" as their preferred social media outlet.

As I mentioned to you guys, through Emin and my contact at VK, they want to create a VOTE Trump 2016 promotion aired directly at these users - people who will be voting in November. At the time, Paul had said he would welcome it and so I had the VK folks mock up a basic sample page - which I am re-sending for your approval now.

It would merely require Mr. Trump to drop in a short message to Russian American voters - or a generic message depending on your choice - and the page can be up and running very quickly.

I have copied the head of Partner Relations for VK - Konstantin Sikorkov - who is a good friend of mine and Emin's - on this email as he would oversee the promotion of the page etc.

Good morning

I hope you are well and congratulations on an outstanding job so far re the campaign. With this in mind, I was just in Moscow and met with a good friend who runs the marketing for VK - which is the largest social media platform in Russia. They have more than 2.7 million Russian Americans using the site ( living in the USA) and had an idea to create a campaign page on VK for Mr. Trump and market it to the almost 3 million influential Russian American voters living in the USA. I thought it was a very interesting and sensible idea and so wanted to pass it along. I am not sure who handles this kind of thing for the campaign so I hope you don't mind I sent it directly to you both. I can get massive exposure for Mr. Trump on the site for sure - and it will be covered in Russian media also - - where I noticed your campaign is covered positively almost daily - which extremely gracious comments from President Putin etc.

Please let me know if the campaign is interested and I will connect the dots.

I want to introduce you the most visited social network in Russia, Ukraine and CIS countries — VK (VKontakte).

Some interesting facts about VK:

- More then 340 million registered users;
- Over 76 million visitors per day;
- Over 2.6 billion page views per day;
- 65% visitors from Russia;
- More then 59% users older then 25 years.

From USA we had 2.7 millions profiles registered and more then 1.5 million visitors monthly.

Our platform includes all types of communication: Messenger + Video + Music + Photo. US press often calls us "Russian facebook", because all other social networks in Russia are rather smaller then VK. For last 2 years VK become a favorite platform for many politics in Russia as the best way to communicate with people. In addition you can find the fool presentation about us with details.

~~We want to invite Donald Trump to set up an official page on VK, which will have the latest updates from Donald and maybe Russian translation.~~

~~Also we will make a huge promotion for it with our marketing instruments and put this page to user's recommendation inc. targeting to all our audience.~~

~~Thanks for your attention, will look forward for your answer.~~

Hi, Dan! Nice to meet you and your team! In attachment you can find the last presentation about VK audience.

Please check this details in the end of my first letter:

- More then 340 million registered users;
- Over 76 million visitors per day;
- Over 2.6 billion page views per day;
- 65% visitors from Russia;
- More then 59% users older then 25 years.

From USA we had 2.7 millions profiles registered and more then 1.5 million visitors monthly.

We can help with a registration, adding first information to the page. But further we want ask you to manage page by yourself with last updates like facebook.

It will be cool also to have Russian translation of publication there to get more coverage, because not so many Russian's know English. But for this thing we need to find in your social media department Russian speaking manager.

Some example of official pages on VK: Jared Leto, Fred Durst, Kevin Spacey, Lndsey Stirling, Shakira, Enrique Iglesias, Linkin Park, Armin Van Buuren, Moby and etc.

Will look forward for your answer. Thanks a lot!

Hi, everyone! Want just to follow up if its possible to set up official Donald Trump's page on VK.

vk.com/donaldtrump

All Russian speaking users in USA (2 million people) and users from Russia+CIS want to get information about Donald Trump on Russian language from the source.

We will help you with the page promotion to whole our audience (100 million users). It will be the top news in Russia.

Thanks a lot!

Good Morning

Dan, I am following up on an email a while back of something I had mentioned to Don and Paul Manafort during a meeting recently. There are believed to be around 2 million Russian American voters living in the USA - and more than 1.6 million of these use the Russian "Facebook" site V Kontakte "VK" as their preferred social media outlet. As I mentioned to you guys, through Emin and my contact at VK, they want to create a VOTE Trump 2016 promotion aired directly at these users - people who will be voting in November. At the time, Paul had said he would welcome it and so I had the VK folks mock up a basic sample page - which I am re-sending for your approval now. It would merely require Mr. Trump to drop in a short message to Russian American voters - or a generic message depending on your choice - and the page can be up and running very quickly.

I have copied the head of Partner Relations for VK - Konstantin Sikorkov - who is a good friend of mine and Emin's - on this email as he would oversee the promotion of the page etc.

Hope it helps

Hi Rob:

It will likely have to come in through the sub-cellar (entrance on 56th Street) and be screened by the Secret Service. I think the best thing to do is to call me an hour or so prior to delivery and I'll give you more specific instructions then.

Have a nice weekend.

Hi Rhona

Hope you are well.

I have a delivery question ---

Emin and Aras have a fairly sizable birthday gift for Mr. Trump and I would like to know exactly how and where we should deliver it to on Tuesday?

I ran into Keith yesterday and he mentioned everything now has to go to your "TSA" style scanning and security at Trump Tower.

Is there a specific delivery address and or instructions?

Thanks so much and have a good weekend

I myself will be putting out the following statement shortly:

One of the key issues banning real reset of relations between the US and Russia is the US position on the continued support of the Sergei Magnitsky Rule of Law Accountability Act of 2012.

A terrible story of Sergei Magnitsky, false from beginning to end, lies at the heart of the law, a story the truthfulness of which no one in the USA ever cared to check. As a result the interests of a particular group of swindlers and intergovernmental relations were irresponsibly thrown into the scale.

Political short-sightedness of Obama Administration allowed the US to pass an act that marked the opening of a new Cold War with Russia, based on unverified words of fugitive William Browder, who renounced US citizenship for tax reasons and was sentenced in absentia to 9 years in prison.

The act which on the face of it aimed at preventing inflow of corrupt capital to the US, contained the never existent story of Magnitsky, "a lawyer", who allegedly uncovered corruption and misappropriation of funds from the Russian Treasury, for which he was arrested, tortured and beaten, and subsequently died in November 2009.

Russia has evidence that the story underlying the act is a lie from beginning to end.

The Act was signed by President Obama immediately after the elections in November 2012, after a powerful three-year lobbying campaign led by several financial groups (ZIFF Oh, HSBC) and politicians (Senator Cardin - the author of the act). It is known from open sources that at least one of those structures owned by ZIFF brothers was one of the main sponsors of the Democrats, including both electoral campaigns of President Obama.

And it was the interests of those corporations that Browder's team served in Russia. Through those structures Browder raised funds to buy shares of Russian strategic companies on the basis of false information and documents, then legitimizing hundreds of millions of dollars in the USA.

Reportedly, in 2006 US the structures of ZIFF brothers gained income of about $1 bln, including 66 mln Gazprom shares received as dividends.

At the same time, investigation of open sources of US registration authorities, and the SEC, revealed no official information relating to declaring investment activities abroad (in Russian Federation) by the afore mentioned US companies for the period of 1999-2007 in the form of granting loans and buying shares of foreign companies, as well as gaining of income and payment of relevant taxes to the US budget.

However, income wrongfully received from illicit turnover of Gazprom shares and from misappropriation of money to be paid as taxes to the Russian budget, given the unawareness of the US regulatory authorities of above proceeds, is indicative of further uncontrolled use thereof, which is an element of legitimization of income received from crime.

In this case, there may also have been violations by the specified US companies controlled by Ziff Brothers, of FCPA regulations and of other US laws.

The US Department of Justice was informed of this as well as of other circumstances in July 2016 by the Office of the Prosecutor General of the Russian Federation and by the RF Ministry of Interior under US-Russia MLAT. Russian received no reaction to its MLAT request heretofore.

At the same time a number of meetings was held by representatives of Russia this summer with representatives of the Republican Party in the House of Representatives, in the course of which the latter were informed of the real circumstances preceding the passing of Magnitsky Act.

Hearings on the issue of credibility of the story underlying the 2012 Magnitsky Act were scheduled on June 14, 2016 in the subcommittee of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives chaired by Mr. Dana Rohrabacher. Russian lawyer Natalia Veselnitskaya and Russian director, author of "Magnitsky Act. Behind the scenes" were to testify at the hearings. Brief statements of intent to testify were filed. Having found out the agenda of the hearings, Browder allies in the Congress urged a hearing at the Foreign Affairs Committee the same day to hold an extended discussion on the matter of "Relations with Putin's Russia", with former US Ambassador Jack Matlock (advocating airclearing between the US and Russia) and two opponents of Russia, former US ambassador to Russia Michael McFaul and political scientist Professor Leon Aron (emigrant from the USSR) invited as experts.

On August 28, 2016 extended statements under oath of Natalia Veselnitskaya, a Russian lawyer, were submitted to the House's Foreign Affairs Committee, relating to the results of her investigation into the ee Magnitsky-Browder case, with a request to conduct a Congressional investigation. This statement was a protocol extension of the statement dated June 14, 2016. However, for some unknown reason, the extended statement of the Russian lawyer setting out the detailed analysis and the facts of the offenses committed by Browder in Russia was excluded from the documents scheduled for hearing on June 14, 2016.

Confidential
November 22, 2016

In early June of this year, some of the circumstances of the Russian investigation into Browder's activities have been brought to the attention of the management of staff. The issue of the investigation of the circumstances of passing the anti-Russian law has been postponed until the results of the election campaign.

Today, all the conditions required for improvement of relations between Russia and the US, which many of the interested persons have long sought to prevent for some personal reasons, are in place.

And one of the first major steps in this direction could be the launch of Congressional investigation into the circumstances of passing the Magnitsky Act, as well as establishment of an American-Russian group composed of investigators and prosecutors, non-governmental lawyers and analysts, to conduct a joint investigation of inter-state transnational crimes.

After you and I spoke about the lawyer and the meeting, I emailed that request to Don. In order for him to consider meeting her , he wanted to know who she was and what she wanted to talk about

It was a private email or text to Don - but it got leaked to New York Times

Agreed but you can see that even your helpful quote was not clearly stated by the Wash Post. Let Alan G and write something.

Thank you

Washington post called yesterday and said they were running with information that I had set up the meeting - and had incorrect Spin on it -- which I tried briefly to correct. I said only that the meeting appeared to have been about adoption issues and was quickly terminated.

I did not reveal who had requested the meeting or any other details.

They are only ones I have spoken with but I do think a generic statement may be needed from me or Emin at some point - as I had Mentioned last week.

Hi Rob. While Don did issue a statement, it did not mention anyone by name. It is as follows:

"I was asked to have a meeting by an acquaintance I knew from the 2013 Miss Universe pageant with an individual who I was told might have information helpful to the campaign. I was not told her name prior to the meeting. I asked Jared and Paul to attend, but told them nothing of the substance. We had a meeting in June 2016. After pleasantries were exchanged, the woman stated that she had information that individuals connected to Russia were funding the Democratic National Committee and supporting Ms. Clinton. Her statements were vague, ambiguous and made no sense. No details or supporting information was provided or even offered. It quickly became clear that she had no meaningful information. She then changed subjects and began discussing the adoption of Russian children and mentioned the Magnitsky Act. It became clear to me that this was the true agenda all along and that the claims of potentially helpful information were a pretext for the meeting. I interrupted and advised her that my father was not an elected official, but rather a private citizen, and that her comments and concerns were better addressed if and when he held public office. The meeting lasted approximately 20 to 30 minutes. As it ended, my acquaintance apologized for taking up our time. That was the end of it and there was no further contact or follow-up of any kind. My father knew nothing of the meeting or these events."

I'm adding our outside counsel, Alan Futerfas, who you have spoken with, to this email.

Rob:

Please consider the following as a statement. Please note that there will always be potential follow-up questions to any statement but if you feel comfortable with this statement and are comfortable saying nothing more, at least for the time being, that would be our preference. Again, any statement should be accurate as to your very best recollection.

"As the person who arranged the meeting, I can definitively state that the statements I have read by Donald Trump Jr. are 100% accurate. The meeting was a complete waste of time and Don was never told Ms. Veselnitskaya's name prior to the meeting. Ms. Veselnitskaya mostly talked about the Magnitsky Act and Russian adoption laws and the meeting lasted 20 to 30 minutes at most. There was never any follow up and nothing ever came of the meeting."

What about this as a statement:

It should

Come from I think from either Aras, you or me or maybe from Crocus Group as a whole.

"The meeting that took place in June 2016 between Miss xxx and representatives of the Trump Campaign was the result of a personal request by us and in no way connected with the Russian Government or any of its officials. "
